

Australian and New Zealand
Society of International Law

ANZSIL International Economic Law Interest Group

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME FOR 6 FEB 2021

Welcome: 4pm (AEST)/6pm (NZ time)

Dilan Thampapillai (University of New South Wales)

Christian Riffel (University of Canterbury)

Keynote Address: 4.15pm (AEST)/6.15pm (NZ time)

Andrew Mitchell (Monash University), The Waitangi Tribunal, Indigenous Data Sovereignty, and the Electronic Commerce Chapter of the CPTTP

Session 1: 4.45pm (AEST)/6.45pm (NZ time)

Chair: Christian Riffel (University of Canterbury)

Tarique Fayaz (Rajiv Gandhi School of Intellectual Property Law, Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur), WTO Fisheries Subsidies and Tackling Illegal, Unreported, and Unregulated Fishing in the Bay of Bengal: Examining the Regulatory Framework under International Law

Abdul Hasib Suenu (University of Canterbury), Global Economic Fairness and the International Subsidies Regime

Swargodeep Sarkar (Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur), National Courts as Actors in Post-Investment Arbitration Award: Indian Perspective

Dilan Thampapillai (University of New South Wales), Originality in International Copyright Law After AI

Session 2: 5.45pm (AEST)/7.45pm (NZ time)

Chair: Dilan Thampapillai (University of New South Wales)

Umair Ghori (Bond University), Understanding Recent Developments of Security Related Use of Export Controls

Christian Riffel (University of Canterbury) The Regulation of Geographical Indications in Free Trade Agreements and the Public International Law Presumption Against Conflicts

Sarah Steele (Cambridge University), Public Health and Vaccines

Close: 6.30pm (AEST)/8.30pm (NZ time)

Dilan Thampapillai (University of New South Wales)

Christian Riffel (University of Canterbury)